

Want to become a diplomat for a semester?

Join the FAUMUN Blockseminar to experience a glimpse into the world of international relations and the United Nations

At the Friedrich-Alexander-University Erlangen-Nuremberg, the Model United Nations seminar, called FAUMUN, brings the workings of the United Nations into the classroom. Students take on the role of delegates to the United Nations and experience their work firsthand.

What is the FAUMUN Blockseminar?

Throughout the Blockseminar, you will be introduced to the workings of the United Nations and the work of diplomats in international relations. To practise your knowledge gained in the seminar and during the speech and negotiation training, you will take on the role of a delegate at Model United Nations simulation conferences and discuss topics of international importance with fellow students. For further information on the Blockseminar, please check out the attached flyer as well as our homepage (<https://www.faumun.fau.de/das-faumun-blockseminar/blockseminar/>).

When does the Blockseminar take place?

The FAUMUN Blockseminar entails 2 seminar sessions in Nuremberg, 2 blockseminar weekends in Erlangen, and 2 Model United Nations simulation conferences (ErlangenMUN in Erlangen and BayernMUN in Nuremberg). For the preliminary schedule, please check out our homepage (<https://www.faumun.fau.de/das-faumun-blockseminar/preliminary-schedule-for-the-blockseminar/>).

To note:

- The seminar as well as the conferences will be held fully in English.
- The participation fee for the final simulation conference BayernMUN is 69 €.*
